

BSSRA SCHOOLS NATIONAL MATCH (Postal) 2015 - Results

England took the honours with a cracking score of 1948, only three points behind their record total from 2010, pushing Scotland into second place. Scotland were only four points down on their winning score of last year, but could not live with England's higher level of consistency. Wales showed a huge improvement over last year, adding 29 points to their 2014 score to take third spot, whereas the Channel Islands went the other way by about the same margin, being beaten for fourth place by Northern Ireland.

England won the 'B' match comfortably, showing their considerable strength in depth.

There were four 'possibles' this year (two more than last time), so it's congratulations to England's Miss S Davies (who top-scored the match with 198) and D Shakhman, Scotland's Miss H Parker and Miss A Inman of Northern Ireland, shooting only the third 100 ever from Northern Ireland in this match.
